Police Service Aide (10-005)
Information Package

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your interest in employment with the City of Roswell Police Department. Please review carefully all the information provided. In order to be considered for employment with the Roswell Police Department, you must return the application packet as soon as possible. If you return the materials by mail, they must be postmarked as soon as possible and mailed to the address above, Attn: Human Resources. Applications will be picked up on a monthly basis. No FAX or e-mail copies will be allowed.

The following information contained in the application packet must be completed and returned to the Human Resources Office as part of the application.

1. City of Roswell Application for Employment. Complete pages 1 through 5 as directed.
2. City of Roswell "Pre-Employment Release and Waiver" form. Must be completed and signed by the applicant and a notary public.
3. City of Roswell "Physical Fitness Release and Consent" form. Must be completed and signed by the applicant and a witness.

Also enclosed with the application packet is an Physical Fitness Demonstration Standards information and the Job Description. The job description contains the necessary qualifications and requirements for the Police Service Aide including, but not limited to, the requirement for eligibility for Police Officer as indicated below. You may retain this information for your own personal records.

"The Police Service Aide must attempt to proceed into the sworn rank when eligible and, within one year of reaching eligibility, receive certification by the State of New Mexico as a sworn Law Enforcement Officer, unless an education waiver has been granted."

After the application deadline, your application packet will be reviewed by the Police Hiring Committee. A driver's license and basic criminal history check will be conducted. Applicants who qualify following these checks will be notified of the pre-employment testing date. Upon review by the Police Hiring Committee the applicant will be notified of the physical agility testing date. After successful completion of the pre-employment physical fitness demonstration test the applicant will be given a supplemental package to complete. After receipt of this package the applicant will be scheduled for interview. Following the interview, the successful candidates will be numerically ranked upon overall suitability to be on the eligibility lists. Vacancies are filled from this list.

Prior to employment, a candidate will be required to pass a pre-employment physical fitness demonstration, polygraph examination, psychological examination and physical examination. If the applicant is hired he will be required to pass a post-employment drug screen and Law Enforcement Academy physical examination prior to entrance into the Law Enforcement Academy.

The applicants must travel at their own expense for the employment process. If you have any questions regarding the Roswell Police Department employment process, you may contact Mrs. Hunter at (575) 624-6700, ext. 269 or Police Chief Robert H. Smith at (575) 624-6770.

Sincerely,

Stacye L. Hunter

POLICE SERVICE AIDE

Definition and Distinguishing Characteristics

This is part-time, entry level, law enforcement-related police work. Under general supervision, provides police services that otherwise would be lost or delayed because of workload saturation on the part of sworn officers. Relieves sworn officers of non-related or low priority police service so that they may pursue anti-crime activities more effectively.

Work is performed in accordance with departmental rules and regulations and upon specific oral and written instructions from a superior. While many decisions are limited by established procedure, independent judgement, usually based on precedent, must be exercised in the handling of specific cases. Some of the work actions are final and represent the last level of responsibility, but many are reviewed or reconsidered internally or by the judicial system before being considered final. Work requires knowledges that are to be learned on-the-job and also with substantial supervisory participation. After training, work is performed without direct supervision, advice and guidance from a superior officer is usually available on non-routine matters. Work assignments and special instructions are received from a superior officer who reviews work methods and results through examinations of reports, on-the-job observation, personal inspection and discussion of work problems. Work involves considerable contact with the general public in both adversary and non-adversary situations. Work involves a significant limited personal danger.

Typical Examples of Work Performed
